London New Zealand 7 West London 30

On a sharp but sunny day at Twyford Avenue West London were on top form. London New Zealand kicked off, the ball was taken by Sweetman passed to Hunt to Nate Alexander who scored WLs first of five tries of the afternoon. Michael Walsh kicked the conversion. WL turned on some pressure and their second unconverted try came from James Hunt returning for his first game this season after along layoff with injury. 12-0 in the first ten minutes. LNZ woke up and began to play by sending the ball wide but WLs defence was well on song and snuffed out the probing attacks by LNZs able fullback and their elusive winger. Scrummaging was generally in WLs favour even with hooker Bev Laurent missing and changes in the second and backrow. After some smart rucking the ball became available for Cameron Gall to score an unconverted try. WLs ascendancy in the forward battle continued till LNZ conceded a penalty which was converted into points by Mike Walsh., the half time whistle brought a fruitful half to a close with WL leading 20-0.

The second period continued with both sides working hard, WL to increase their lead and LNZ to reduce the deficit which they did after an unusual lack of concentration by WL allowed LNZ in for their only score of the afternoon.

West London kept up the pressure and were held up on the line to deny them a score but spinning the ball wide sent Mark Matheson over in the corner., followed shortly afterwards by an interception by skipper Jon White entailed a 70yard run to add to WLs tally of five tries. LNZ responded by pressurizing WLs left wing but to no avail and referee Gannon whistled no side with the score at 30 -7 earning WL a well deserved bonus point.
