West London 3 Hitchin 34

Other results: Bank of England 36 Cheshunt 8
HAC 50 London Welsh Amateurs 12
Haringey Rhinos 25 Barnet Elizabethans 31
London New Zealand 27 Finchley 16
London Nigerians 63 Datchworth 5

Please note:
There will be no NL next week and probably the week after so hang on to this one for info.

WL were unable to maintain their impetus from last week and went down heavily to a Hitchin team that took their opportunities well to score four converted tries and two penalties in response to West Londons penalty. This was despite WL spending thirty minutes of the first half camped within scoring distance of the Hitchin try line. Hitchins defence held them out but spilled balled by WL didn't help their cause neither did the penalty count for offside infringements.

The packs were evenly matched with maybe WL just having the edge, but the Hitchin back line used the ball they had to better advantage than WL, two kicks ahead one in each half allowed their pacy winger to get to the touch down ahead of the WL defence. WLs powerful rucking game gained them much ground with Matt Roxburgh making many hard yards, but with no reward. West Londons line out was in general precise Jarrod Boys, getting the ball to the WL backs but too often knock ons frustrated useful moves. Hitchin well deserved their win, but on balance not perhaps by so big a margin.

A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

The Clubhouse refurb is on target so we announce that the Old Sods refurbishment will take place on FEBRUARY 4th 2012 when we entertain Haringey Rhinos. We are hoping that a vast number of you will turn out on that day to say hello to your old buddies, have a beer and wads and take a tour of the newly done up clubhouse and facilities.

Message from Potes

Cowboys!! Few things I just need to update you all on. First of all we have the RFU raffle again this year, same as last year, minimum £10 worth of tickets to sell each but if you can sell more then great guns. I will be handing them out at games and trainings over the coming weeks. Get the money and completed books back to me, Sos, Pickup or Dave ASAP. Re the Paris tour, we are well under way, we have 26 confirmed so far so great start, we normally end up with a touring party of 30 - 35. Just to confirm the details:

- Depart London on Eurostar 10 March early doors. (tour dress to be confirmed) Saturday day normally ends up being a day of carnage, look out for Clancy in bed by 4pm. Saturday night will be formal dinner then into town in Paris Sunday will be our game against the French about midday, then off to Stade de France for France v England 6 Nations at 4pm before heading out on the town (again). Monday you will need to take off work, we will be getting the Eurostar back about 4pm. Cost will be approx £250 for those wanting hotels and hopefully £190 for those who want to stay with our French hosts. Costs however to be confirmed but that will include all meals, Euro Star and 6 nations match tickets. If you are struggling for coin and really want to come let me know, we maybe able to sort sponsorship (i.e. students, jobless, just arrived in the country etc etc) We need to start getting deposits, please send £50 or £100 to me to lock in a tour place. Email when you pay so I know who it is. Hayden Potier, First Direct, Sort Code 40-47-59 Acc Number 21868861. Also, the 1's will be having the last home game of the season on December 10, 2's are just down at London Welsh so can get back up easy as well, keep it in the diary, we will be having a few beers at the club, xmas fair wells sort of stuff. Also, one for the future, White Thunder (otherwise known as Richard) is sorting a do for the new year for the clubhouse re-opening, so watch this space for details. Send me money and confirmations for France ASAP. Cheers Potes.

A welcome to some new lads

Message from Matt Roxburgh.

Bournemouth sevens Friday 1st June to Sun 3rd June 2012.

Last Year was a wicked time, I know there are a few looking to repeat the dose and others gutted cos they missed out. Spud will be missing so Matt is holding the reins.. we need at least 14 players Cost per player is £80, for team entry, Festival ticket and camping pass. 07824603053 matthew.roxburgh@gmail.com

We now have the tickets for the Annual RFU Draw Tickets are £1 each but we hope you'll buy a book at a fiver. If we sell them all we will earn over 1k towards running the club which each year costs a little more than last. So we ask you 1. To buy some tickets and 2. To sell some. A member has won the second prize in the past so who knows it may be your year to win the 1st prize of £10k.
